

CISO Priorities are Evolving

92%

of CISOs across EMEA admit they need to put additional IT security measures in place to better enable remote workers in 2021

The pandemic has shifted CISO priorities towards optimizing and securing the everywhere enterprise, in which IT infrastructures are everywhere, and distributed employees need access to corporate data everywhere.

64%

of CISOs plan to invest in mobile threat detection software

58%

of CISOs say enhancing user experiences for remote employees will be a top priority this year

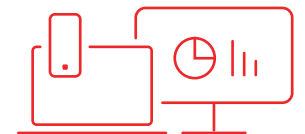

57%

of CISOs say enhancing authentication to remote applications will be a top priority this year

47%

of CISOs plan to invest in specialized unified endpoint management software

Ivanti surveyed 400 CISOs from enterprises with more than 500 employees across EMEA in the UK, France, Germany, Benelux, Spain, and Italy to understand how the pandemic has influenced the roles and priorities of CISOs.

Read the full survey