The Patch Apocalypse continued throughout July, but it looks like we get a bit of break this Patch Tuesday. We only have to deal with Microsoft. They released updates for all major products except for SQL Server. Give priority to the Windows OS updates as they fix one known exploited and two publicly disclosed vulnerabilities. But don't slack off with the rest because there are 42 vulnerabilities rated Critical this month with many concentrated in Office and the other apps.

For more details on this month's releases join us on the Ivanti Patch Tuesday webinar series.
